IMPRESSIONIST NORMANDY TOUR From Saturday 23 to Monday 25 September 2023

Your programme – 3 days / 2 nights

D1 – Saturday September 23, 2023 : In the footsteps of Claude Monet

Departure from your region. Flight to Paris (optional). Welcome in Paris and meeting with Fabrice Roy. Then drive towards Giverny with a stop at Vétheuil where you will walk in the footsteps of the master of Impressionism from outside the house where he lived from 1878 to 1882 to the banks of the Seine where he found the pattern of nearly 200 paintings.

Continue to Giverny. Brunch lunch at the restaurant.

In the afternoon, you will visit the House of Claude Monet and its famous garden, a haven of peace where the artist lived from 1883 until his death in 1926.

Then you will head to the Museum of Impressionisms, where you will discover « Renoir in Guernesey », an exhibition celebrating the 140th anniversary of the journey of Auguste Renoir in the Anglo-Normand Island. You will end the day with a visit to the Sainte-Radegonde church and Monet's tomb before settling at the end of the day in a 3* hotel in the Vernon region.

You will enjoy the first conference given by Fabrice Roy "Monet and Clemenceau: a friendship", followed by an aperitif.

Dinner at the restaurant. Accommodation.

Fabrice Roy

Lecturer, author, teacher and director, Fabrice Roy is the founder of the site "Art, History and Conferences" which relates the news of museums, exhibitions, painters of the 19th century and their time. Poetic, close to the theatre, sometimes surprising, his lectures draw the public into the universe of these incredible characters through the deep trace that their lives leave us as a legacy.
